Agreement & Understanding

I understand that Aaronson Grand are not attorneys and have not represented themselves as such. I also understand that they do not represent me in this matter. I understand that Aaronson Grand may not be able to assist me in the event this divorce becomes contested. I have read the previous five pages and understand that if I have questions concerning it's contents that I should seek advice from competent legal counsel. The information and terms described are provided by the State of Utah's courts

Client Responsibilities

1 Provide Aaronson Grand Accurate and Complete information	3 If serving spouse, follow-up with Constable/Sheriff on status of summons.
2 Contact spouse to sign documents or gather information for Service.	5 Wait statutory 90 day waiting period or prepare request to waive time period.
3 Arrange for the divorce documents to be delivered to the appropriate court.	6 If a copy of your decree of Divorce is needed, you will need to contact the district court to receive a copy (small charge from the court may apply).
